

James Phiri

James Phiri was born in Lusaka, Zambia.

After studying for a BSc degree at the City University, London, James qualified as an Accountant before going on to gain an MBA.

He is a Fellow of the ACCA and an Executive Director of the John Maxwell Team of International Coaches, Trainers and Speakers.

Alongside his work as an accountant, James is involved in a number of activities:

Trustee and Director of the Virtual Doctors

Trustee for The Other Side Foundation School for orphans and Vulnerable Children in Zambia. This provides free education and lunch meals to some 400 children in George compound.

Member of the SMART Cranleigh Community Steering Group - This is a citizen-driven initiative involving the community to promote healthy living and a better quality of life for all. In the light of changing government spending priorities and policy, SMART (Shared Mission, Active Relationships Together) seeks to find ways in which members of the community work together to support the community.

Current Chairman for International and Foundation at Cranleigh Rotary Club, District 1145, UK.