

Denis Champ

Denis Champ established his management career in oil and gas in the 1980s. A French national with 25 years of management experience in Asia and Africa, his corporate role included negotiating and establishing joint ventures, building infrastructure and overseeing finance and HR.

Prior to retiring, Denis served as General Manager for Baker Hughes Inteq in Indonesia, Nigeria and Cameroon, and for International SOS in Nigeria and Vietnam. A passionate travel photographer, Denis currently travels widely and volunteers his expertise in finance and management to serve TOSF together with his spouse, Leela. Denis is TOSF's operations and finance manager since the charity's inception.
